Arrangements are being made by the Government to send a number of British troops to Great Britain this winter to assist in the operations of the Mother Country where they originally came.

The arrival of the fleet of whaling vessels, so many of which come in clean and their crews consequently destitute, has caused a glut in the sailor market. Men are ready to ship at almost any price, and yesterday the American ship Starling secured 16 men for a voyage round the Horn to New York for 50 cents a day.

Dispatches from Rome convey the intelligence that Monsignor Sallusti, Papal delegate to the United States, will remain in Washington. Dr. O'Connell, recorder of the American college, yesterday presented the Pope with a volume containing the speeches and State papers of President Cleveland. The Pope made some flattering remarks upon the gift.

The House of Commons rejected by a vote of 256 to 217, last evening, the amendment to the Employment of Children Bill, proposed by William Macdonald, Radical, on Wednesday. The amendment was that workmen should be privileged under certain conditions to exempt themselves from the provisions of the bill. It was resisted by the Government. The Conservatives had hopes of defeating the Government on the vote.

Disputes to the Coal Miners' Federation have made an offer to the Miners' Association on the wages dispute, asking them to give the men a minimum daily wage of seven shillings (£7.75) for 48 hours of work, and to give them a bonus of 10 shillings (£10) for every 100 tons of coal produced.

The arrangement of the programme for the annual conference of the Conservative National Union was only finished last night. The time spent upon the agenda shows how difficult the party managers have found it to get a good rallying cry.

As finally arranged, the programme is: 1. A declaration of the reasons of the Church in Wales or other political issues on which it would be dangerous to commit the party. Lord Dufferin, who besides being a genuine sportsman, takes great interest in the success of the Conservative party, will preside at the Conference, and Lord Salisbury will make a speech on the second day.

Among the more prominent resolutions to be submitted will be one affirming that Great Britain is suffering from the effect of the tariff on the import of wool, which is a matter of great importance to the wool-growing districts.

THE UNITED STATES CONSUL AT AMOY.
COLONEL HOGG WILL NOT COME TO CHINA.
Colonel H. Hampton Hogg, of Virginia, who was appointed by President Cleveland to succeed Dr. E. B. B. as United States Consul at Amoy, has declined the appointment. The reason given is that he is unable to leave his home in Virginia, where he is engaged in the management of his estate.

Colonel Hogg was a member of the Virginia House of Delegates, and was a prominent figure in the State. He was a member of the Virginia House of Delegates, and was a prominent figure in the State. He was a member of the Virginia House of Delegates, and was a prominent figure in the State.

office resident Tory magistrates. Nothing keeps Mr. Dillan and O'Brien and other anti-Parliamentary Tories from the fact that, without him, H. M. Rule would be a private representative of the British Government to Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Morley on the difficulty of their opposition, a sympathy not a political issue. The element in the cabinet opposed to Mr. Morley triumphs for the time, but it requires few gifts as a political prophet to predict that the future contains dangers to the present administration that will tax all the resources of Mr. Gladstone to avoid.

MEETING OF ANARCHISTS.
Last night at the South Place Hall, as expected, led to the prosecution of Mr. Hogg, the public hall of the Commonwealth, the organ of the London anarchists, and Samuel, editor of that paper. The sentiments expressed by these two men in their paper were outrageous. The representatives of the United Press to-day had an interview with Samuel, declared that he did not fear being arrested and the police could not compel him to close his mouth. He landed the men who, in the past, had been the cause of the trouble, and the rich. It was a fine revenge, he declared, for the murder of hero Paine, who, in trying to kill General Martineau Campos, was only doing of the world of a tyrant. Continuing, Samuel said that the hypocritical comments on the anarchists that appeared in the newspapers were the very essence of the matter. They appeared side by side with stories of the slaughter of Martineau and the starvation of English sailors in the Opium House at Barcelona, he added, was nothing compared to what could and would be done by desperate men. Genuine anarchists thought the bomb-throwing in Barcelona a glorious deed. It was only the beginning of reprisals upon the rich and those in power. If another campaign was launched in connection with the Martineau Campos occurrence, other avengers would arise and continue the bloody work that would be the end of the capitalists. The people of the United States would not make reparation for the hanging of the Chicago anarchists, who were martyrs in a great cause. The work of Ravachol in Paris and Pallas in Barcelona, proved that anarchism was spreading and that it could not be crushed out.

TRADE MATTERS.
China some time ago issued an edict forbidding the importation of machinery. This touched English manufacturers in a soft spot, and represented by the Foreign Office, Lord Salisbury, the foreign minister, as in the case of the British manufacturers would sustain, and Lord Salisbury sent instructions to the British Minister at Peking to vigorously protest against the prohibition, which is due to the fact that Li Hung Chang, the viceroy of Chi Li, and a number of Chinese officials are said to start cotton spinning mills in Shanghai, and fearing foreign competition, Li Hung Chang issued the edict to restrict the import of machinery. The edict was a blow to the British manufacturers, and the British manufacturers are protesting against the prohibition, which is due to the fact that Li Hung Chang, the viceroy of Chi Li, and a number of Chinese officials are said to start cotton spinning mills in Shanghai, and fearing foreign competition, Li Hung Chang issued the edict to restrict the import of machinery.

THE SILVER MARKET.
has completely altered the pessimistic predictions that a fall would inevitably follow the repeal of the silver purchase clause of the Sherman Act by the American Congress. The financial press give various explanations of the strength of the market. Summed up, these explanations are that there is a strong demand for silver for China and Japan, while the great silver mining companies can be said to hold their stock. Then the report that the American Treasury department ordered the release of a portion of the metal bought under the Sherman Act is admitted to have been of assistance in averting the expected troubles. The Economist holds that the action of the American Treasury would have been a blow to the silver market, and would have been a blow to the silver market, and would have been a blow to the silver market.

Mr. Gladstone has selected as his physician to succeed Sir Andrew Clark, who was built to do, William Henry Broadbent, who is one of the three physicians-in-ordinary to the Prince of Wales. Gladstone's preference now indicates an almost daily medical supervision being kept over him. Dr. Clark advised Mr. Gladstone that, for himself, Dr. Broadbent or Dr. Douglas Powell, a physician-extraordinary to the Queen, be selected in his stead. At the funeral of his physician, a friend to-day Mr. Gladstone looked best and broken, but he straightened up as he left Westminster Abbey after the ceremonies ended.

into a defence of J. Hampton Hogg, recently recalled as Consul to Amoy China. He claims Hogg as perfectly sane, and if wrong charged to be given a fair trial. The charges of forgery he claims to be groundless and in defiance of the evidence. As to a drunken debauch, Colonel Hogg says the statement is grossly exaggerated and untrue.

"Colonel J. Hampton Hogg of Rancho, Va., who (the revoked consul) reparatus to Amoy, has gone to his home in the Old Dominion. His baggage is at the Baldwin, but the Colonel has apartments at the Home for the Care of the Inebriate, where the staff of his accumulated transcendentalism is slowly melting down."

Colonel Hogg in his cups talked plainly. Whether it was the cups or the talk is a mooted question, but the two were not separated. He was a man of letters, and he was a man of letters. He was a man of letters, and he was a man of letters. He was a man of letters, and he was a man of letters.

Colonel Hogg had a lively and varied experience in crossing the continent, included in which was an attempt to win a prize for a Pan-American Exposition in Chicago. He was a man of letters, and he was a man of letters. He was a man of letters, and he was a man of letters. He was a man of letters, and he was a man of letters.

PEKING NOTES.
(FROM A NATIVE CORRESPONDENT.)

H.M. the Empress Dowager seems to be in perfect health despite her weight of fifty-eight years of life (it is calculated as fifty-five in Chinese horoscopes) and as regards her recent birthday on the 17th of November, she is reported to have anticipated the festivities and congratulations which literally rained down on her with almost childish delight. All the Princesses and distinguished ladies of high rank who were fortunate enough to have been allowed, by a strict and severe selection, to attend the birthday and the coronation of the Empress, and the celebration of the birthday of the Empress, and the celebration of the birthday of the Empress, and the celebration of the birthday of the Empress.

But all these festivities meant money. The Grand Chamberlains and High Officers of the Household Department entrusted with the duty of preparing the birthday celebration were involved, in view of the present condition of affairs in the country, to think that the 100,000 should be more than enough to cover every expense, economy having been frequently enjoined upon them by the Emperor. But the Emperor's desire of the birthday celebration was not to be lessened, and the Emperor's desire of the birthday celebration was not to be lessened, and the Emperor's desire of the birthday celebration was not to be lessened.

There is a custom in the case of this dynasty, fixing the 1st day of the 10th moon (in this instance the 8th of November) for a general thanksgiving to the gods for their protection during the past twelve months. The sacrifices consist of every conceivable variety of meats of the field and birds of the air—wild or tame. The various meats are boiled or roasted or stewed as the case may be, and on this occasion, however, the offering of the sacrifices, the Emperor's desire of the birthday celebration was not to be lessened, and the Emperor's desire of the birthday celebration was not to be lessened, and the Emperor's desire of the birthday celebration was not to be lessened.

night and apply fannels, relieving me only for the time, I gave up all hope of ever being well again, when in November, 1891, I read of the good Mother Seigel's Syrup had done in so many cases, I began to use it, and after taking a few bottles all my aches and pains left me and have never returned since. This medicine seems to have driven all the poison out of my system, and I feel as smart to-day as I did thirty years ago, for which I thank God and Seigel's Syrup. Had I used it sooner I should have been saved years of suffering." (Signed) WILLIAM STODDART, Douglas, near Cork, Ireland, January 7th, 1892.

Mr. Stoddart is gardener at Mrs. Edwards', the Island, Roehampton, and has a shop at Douglas. He is a very respectable man and has been in service at Mrs. Edwards' twenty years.

In his letter he further states that from boyhood he was a victim of indigestion and dyspepsia. This fact explains the rheumatism, as it was the cause of it. The bile acids from the torpid stomach and liver filled the blood, lodged in the joints and muscles, and gave rise to all the consequences he describes. The effect of the Syrup was to expel the acids from the body and set the digestive machinery healthily at work, for the first time in his life.

This was the way the human vehicle broke down in Mr. Stoddart's case, but fortunately for him he gave up something that had power to repair it. Better watch the weak spots. Delays are dangerous.

THE object of the Company is to form and maintain a factory in Yokohama for the Manufacture of Watches of all kinds and descriptions.

The founders of the Company are possessed of a plant of machinery complete in every particular, of the newest design and the finest workmanship, and adapted for the making of all implements used in the watch trade as well as the making of watches. It is well known that machinery has effected a complete revolution in the watch trade and it is confidently expected that by availing itself of the comparatively cheap labour of this country this Company will be able to supply the trade in all parts of the world with an article which for excellence of workmanship and cheapness of price will defy competition.

Mr. P. H. Wheeler, the Superintendent of the Company, has been for many years engaged in developing watch-making machinery, and the testimonials from his former employers testify to his business ability, skill, and integrity. The machinery of which the founders are possessed has been perfected under his superintendence and a considerable part thereof is of his invention.

Besides the Machine, the founders are possessed of ten thousand watches in various stages of completion which are the outcome of the said Machinery; and material on hand sufficient to turn out about twenty-five thousand more. It will thus be seen that it is not an untried plant which the founders have acquired, but one which has already given proofs of its excellence. It was only the advantage of obtaining a cheaper labour market than can be found in the United States that has induced them to work the business in Japan.

It is an established fact that the principal factors in the United States in seven years paid 300 per cent. dividend on a capital of Six Million Dollars; and that was done on a wage basis of $1.50 (gold) per operative, the factories employing six thousand hands. If the difference in the rate of labour in this country is taken into consideration the operations of the Company will be assured to realise to the full the expectations of the founders. The profits of watch-making are based entirely on the price of labour.

It is not in the labour market only, that an advantage will be obtained. Coal and other materials can be purchased in this country at a lower rate than in the United States. And besides all these advantages, which are great, there is one of still greater importance, the knowledge to be obtained of the requirements of the local trade, of the trade for China, and that of "The Straits" and India. The Company will be capable of supplying a watch of the best workmanship to the population of these large and important countries, at a price far below any watch of like character that has ever been offered to these markets.

Taking into consideration these advantages the founders confidently expect to pay a dividend of at least 10 per cent. per annum on the first two years' work and thereafter dividends at a much higher rate.

The Company has been registered in Hongkong as a Limited Company.

The founders take and acquire 30,000 shares of the stock of the Company in payment for the machinery plant and stock and their labour and experience in preparing and procuring the machinery and stock.

Ten thousand shares of twenty-five yen each are offered for subscription.

The memorandum and articles of association of the Company may be inspected at the offices of the Company, No. 10 Bond, Yokohama.

Applications for shares should be made on forms annexed to the Prospectus and should be forwarded to the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation accompanied by a remittance for the amount of the deposit.

Forms of application will be sent free to any person, by addressing the Head Office, 10 Bond, Yokohama, Japan.
